

Al Noor International School
Riyadh, Saudi Arabia
Girl's Wing Lower Grade Section

Perfect Verb Tenses

p. 356

p. 84

Objectives

Recall Verbs

Determine the different perfect verb tenses

Use the correct
perfect verb tenses in a sentence

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Verb

= action word

Example: run, walk, swim, jump, talk

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Verb Tenses

Verb tense can be thought of in terms of past, present, and future:

- Past: what has already happened or has already been (walked)
- Present: what is happening right now (walk)
- Future: what will happen or what will be (will walk)

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses

Past Perfect Tense

Perfect tenses are a little different. They use a helping verb to show how actions are related in time:

- Past perfect: shows an action that began and ended in the past (we had walked)

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Past Perfect Tense

Past Perfect = had + past tense of the verb

Example: Julie had travelled to many countries before she moved to Spain.

She had finished her exam when the timer went off.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Present Perfect Tense

- Present perfect: shows an action that began in the past and ended in the present (we have walked)

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Present Perfect Tense

Present Perfect= have/has + past tense of the verb

Example: Julie has travelled to many countries looking for a place to live.

I have read that book twice.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Future Perfect Tense

- Future perfect: shows an action that will start and end in the future (we will have walked)

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Present Perfect Tense

Future Perfect= will have + past tense of the verb

Example: Julie will have travelled to many countries before the end of the year.

The students will have studied before the spelling test.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Perfect Tenses

Past Perfect= had+ past tense of the verb

Present Perfect= have/has+ past tense of the verb

Future Perfect= will have+ past tense of the verb

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Have

PRESENT TENSE

I / You / We / They
and PLURAL NOUNS

I have a bike.
You don't have a cat.
We have a homework.
They have a nice car.

Has

PRESENT TENSE

He / She / It
and SINGULAR NOUNS

She has a cat.
He has an exam.
It has a good quality.
She doesn't have a dog.

Had

PAST TENSE

He had to go home.
I had a meeting earlier.
I thought you had quit.
She hadn't eaten all day.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Let's Try This!

Complete the sentences using verb and verb tenses in the parenthesis.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

1. The Zoologist (watch; present perfect) _____ the bears for two days.
2. Ted (sign; present perfect) _____ the contract already.
3. By Monday, I (sell; future perfect) _____ the car.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

4. I (walk; past perfect) _____ to the store.

5. The candles (melt; future perfect)
_____ out by tomorrow morning.

6. By the time the party starts, I (bake; future perfect) _____ the cake.

7. I (read ; past perfect) _____ until midnight because the book was so good!

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

8. We (think; past perfect) _____ the test was going to be easy.

9. By tomorrow our bookkeeper (complete; future perfect) _____ her report.

10. Brown tree snakes (adapt; present perfect) _____ to the environment in Guam.

Guided Practice

Complete the sentences using verb and verb tenses in the parenthesis.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

1. The Zoologist (watch; present perfect) has watched the bears for two days.
2. Ted (sign; present perfect) has signed the contract already.
3. By Monday, I (sell; future perfect) will have sold the car.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

4. I (walk; past perfect) have walked to the store.

5. The candles (melt; future perfect) will have melted out by tomorrow morning.

6. By the time the party starts, I (bake; future perfect) will have baked the cake.

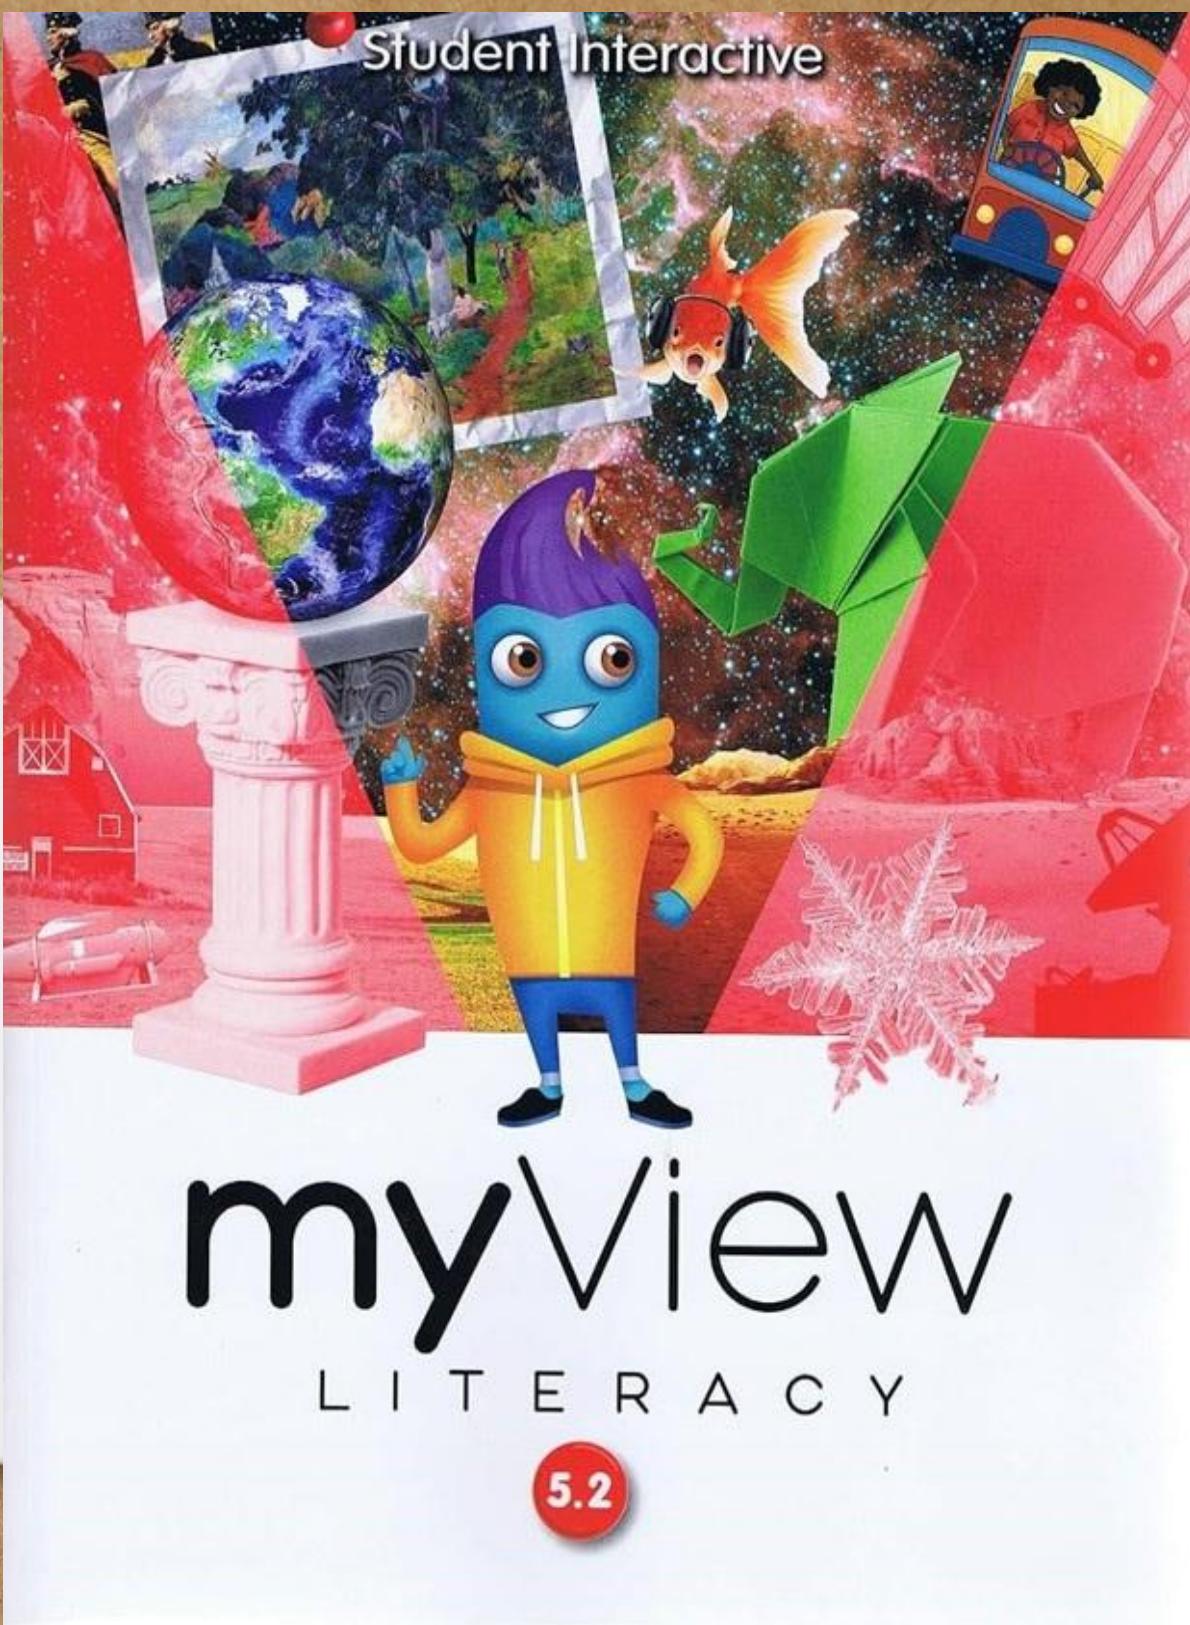

7. I (read ; past perfect) have read until midnight because the book was so good!

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

8. We (think; past perfect) had thought the test was going to be easy.

9. By tomorrow our bookkeeper (complete; future perfect) will have completed her report.

10. Brown tree snakes (adapt; present perfect) have adapted to the environment in Guam.

p. 356

Guided Practice

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Answer page
356 in your
MVL TB 5.1
book.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Lila walks to the library every afternoon and studies for her exams. She plans her schedule carefully and always completes her assignments on time. Yesterday, she visited her grandmother and helped her with some gardening. Later, she called her friend to discuss their project.

Lila had walked to the library every afternoon and had studied for her exams. She had planned her schedule carefully and always completes her assignments on time. Yesterday, she had visited her grandmother and had helped her with some gardening. Later, she had called her friend to discuss their project.

My TURN Edit this draft by changing each verb to past perfect tense.

Possible responses:

had checked

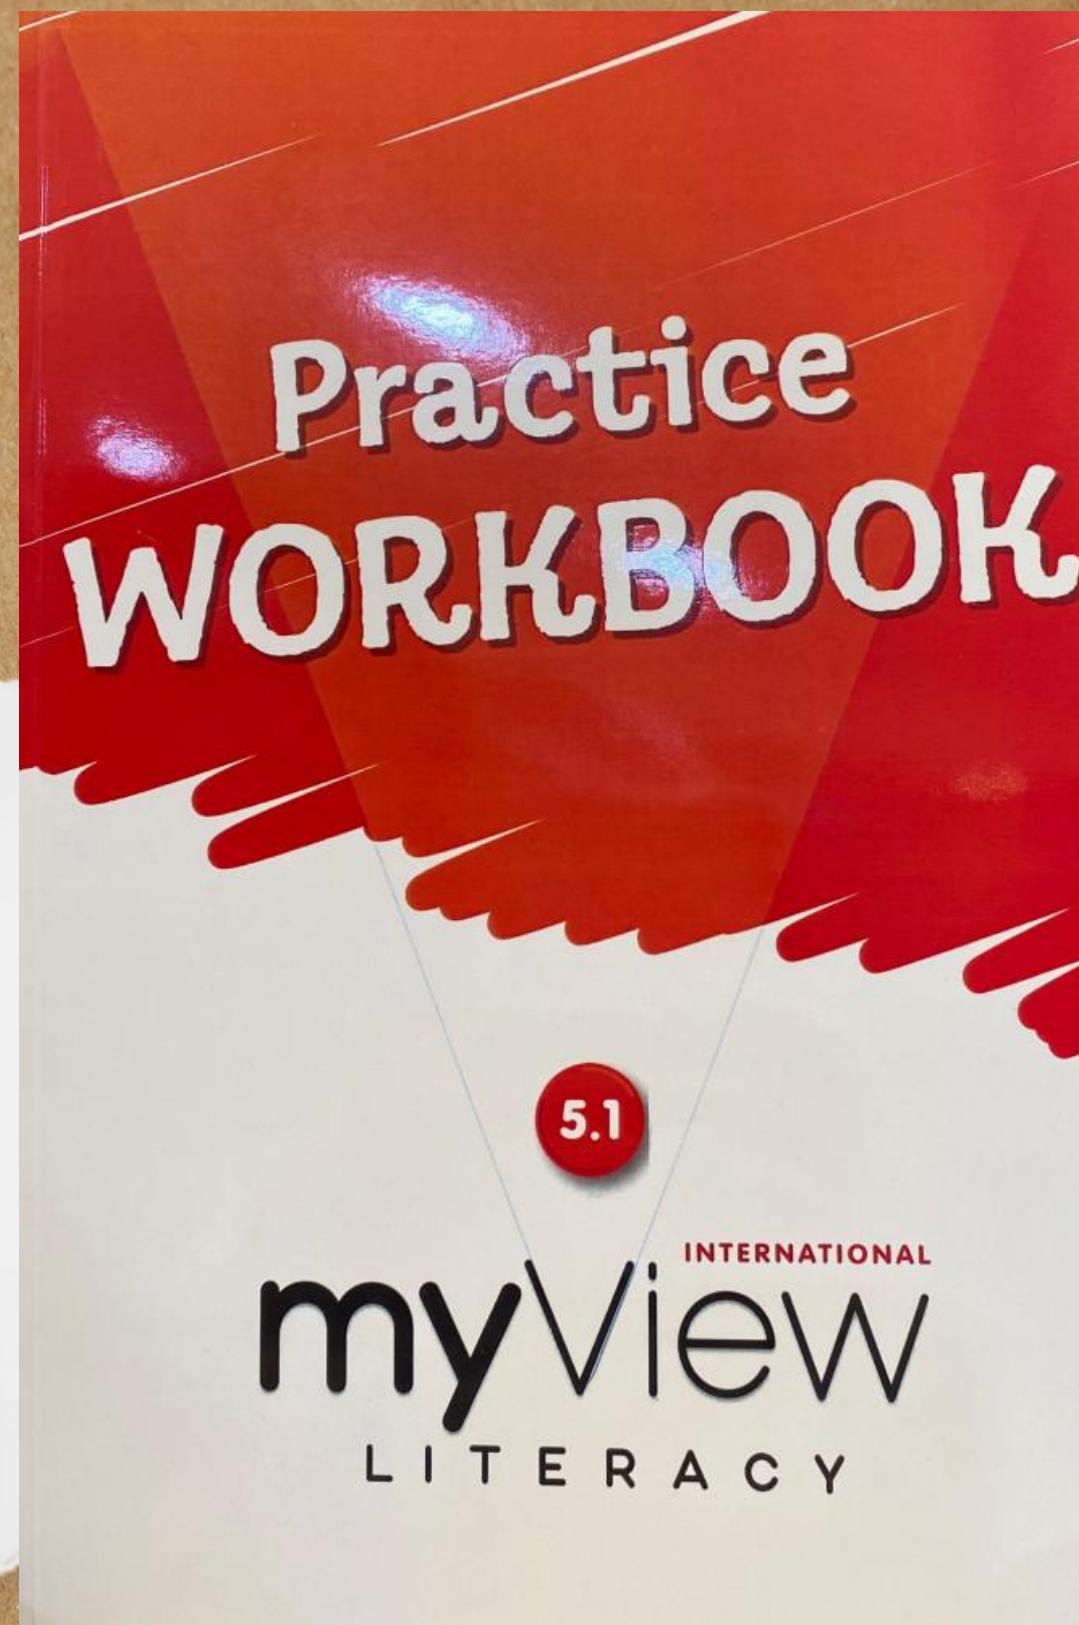

had arrived

Researchers ~~check~~ data after they arrive at the laboratory.

Last month, one of the machines ~~failed~~ had failed to measure the migration patterns. The manager ~~asked~~ had asked the university for better equipment. The state-of-the-art device ~~arrived~~ had arrived last week.

p. 84

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

Independent Practice
Answer page
84 in your
MVL PW 5.1
book.

My TURN Complete the sentences using the verb and verb tense shown.

- Recall Verbs
- Determine the different perfect verb tenses
- Use the correct perfect verb tenses in a sentence

1. Elisa (offer; past perfect) had offered to help Tyler with his project.
2. By the time he is fifteen, Jack (read; future perfect) will have read many books.
3. We (drive; past perfect) had driven a long way to get here.
4. DeMarcus (ask; past perfect) had asked his mom if she needed help making dinner.
5. By the end of the summer, Rasheed (harvest; future perfect) will have harvested peppers, carrots, and squash.

Thank You